Art.22 - The participation kit can be collected at the Registration Office, on October 2nd and 3rd at a time to be announced.

Art.23 - To collect the participant kit it is required to present an identification document (ID or passport) and the federation license duly recognized, (for the athletes federated on the Portuguese Cycling Federation).

Art.24 - Other person can collect the documentation, but he must submit good copies of the athlete's documents.

Art.25 - In case that a registered athlete does not participate in the event, or doesn't collect his participation kit at the registration office, the documentation and any gifts not collected at the race office, will not be sent, and it can only be collected at the registration office on the event dates.

Art.26 - The plate number for the bike and chip equipment are owned by the Organization and the participant have permission to use it until the end of the event if complies with all the rules or by decision taken by the organization at any time.

At the end of the Event the plate number is offered to the participant by the organization. The Event number and the chip are equipment for personal use and non-transferable and not allowed to be used by another person.

Art.27 - All participants must place the plate number on the front of the bicycle, in the area of the handlebar so as to be entirely visible. Any athlete who fails to comply with this rule will be prohibited to enter in the starting boxes and will be excluded from the event. It is strictly forbidden to modify the graphical content contained on the Event number on the bicycle or add any type of message or image-oriented advertising or otherwise.

Art.28 - The chip must be in the right position on the backside of the frontal identification number for the bike.

Art.29 - The organization can not be held responsible for errors or failures of the chip chrono system, either by improper use by the participant, or for any other reason.

ON THE ROAD

Art.30 – On the departure for Granfondo, the participants are distributed on Starting Boxes with the following order and designations:

Box Premium – Pack Premium subscribers and invited athletes (limited to 200 atletas)

Box A – Bib Numbers 1 to 199

Box B - Bib Numbers 200 to 399

Box C - Bib Numbers 400 to 599

Box D - Bib Numbers 600 to 799

Box E - Bib Numbers 800 to 999

Box F - Bib Numbers 1.000 to 1.199

Box G - Bib Numbers 1.200 to 1.500

The distribution of participants by the starting boxes is done in order of confirmation of registration.

Art.31 - The event will take place on OPEN ROADS WITH TRAFFIC. All participants must strictly comply with traffic rules contained in the Portuguese Road Code, with particular attention to the requirement to keep the right side of the road and observe the rules of priority at junctions. Any person who does not respect these rules will be immediately expelled from the event and will be barred from participating in subsequent editions of the event.

Each participant is required to read and sign a statement provided by the organization which declares to know and take the risks inherent to participation in a competition open to traffic. In this statement the athlete precludes the organization responsibility for any accident derived from their participation in the event. However, the participants are covered by the event insurance.

Art.32 - In order to provide the concept of "everybody rides on his own pace" in all the course, the organization's vehicles will follow in front of the Event with an appropriate speed to not interfere with the pace of the participants. However, if necessary, the vehicles of the organization may restrict the speed of the participants. In these situations, the participants cannot surpass the organization's cars circulating in front. Athletes who violate this rule are out of the safety system of the event, following at their own risk.

Art.33 - Assistance provided to athletes by support vehicles outside the organization is strictly prohibited. It is also prohibited for vehicles to accompany the cyclists during the event. Information will be provided by the organization about the places recommended for caregivers to assist the transition and provide support to athletes. Security forces (Police) are present to prevent movement of support vehicles in the middle of cyclists in the Event, ensuring compliance with the code of the road.

Art.34 - The control of the event will be made by security forces, composed of elements of the GNR (National Republican Guard), corporations belonging to the territory and the traffic Corp, which will ensure compliance with traffic rules by all those involved in the event and other vehicles on the road.

Art.35 - The time control of each athlete will be carried out electronically, with chips.

The use of the chip is mandatory, the athlete must meet the rules for its correct positioning and use. Improper use of the chip or non-use participation of an athlete does not show in the registration of its passage through the timing controls stipulated by the organization, causing the disqualification, with the consequent absence of the final list of times and the loss of his or her proof of participation.

Check points, where times will be recorded, will be located in the arrival and departure and other points along the Event course.

Art.36 - To ensure the integrity and safety of athletes, there are control points, which will set time limits for passing. Athletes who come to these control points after the time limit set for each control will be obliged to abandon the event and be collected by the vehicle "broom wagon" to the finish.

The locations of the controls and time limits for passing (closing of the controls) will be communicated to the participants before the event.

Participants who choose to continue by their own means will be required to report at the checkpoint with time and respective number of participant and will cease to be governed by the event organization and will carry on at their own risk from that point.

Art.37- Athletes who drop out during the event must address the organization's members, in person or by phone, announcing their withdrawal. Upon determining the absence of an athlete, rescue services will be advised. Any person who didn't announce his or her withdrawal can be charged for the costs of the search and rescue. In addition will be punished with a ban from participating in later editions of the event.

Art.38 - Athletes must strictly comply with the time, including the time of departure (8:00 am), ensuring that they start before the sweeper car. Who doesn't respect this rule of proof will be participating at its own risk, out of the organization's control and responsibility.

Closing Time of the Start Checkpoint (km 0) - 10 minutes after the Start.

Art.39 - The organization has a medical monitoring team of the event, with several mobile medical teams and ambulances. If necessary participants must apply for help to organizational elements that trigger the necessary means of assistance.

Art.40 - Athletes who have suffered an accident during the event and needed emergency or medical services, should within three days after the event's day, participate the accident to the organisation by email to sinistros@portinsurance.pt.

The participation of the accident is critical to ensure the coverage of the damage by the insurance company.

Art.41 - The organization shall have mechanical assistance along the route to try to solve mechanical problems.

In case of failure, the hand labor is free, however the replacement parts will be charged to athletes who need them. Participants must carry some money during the event to pay these costs. If the participant does not have enough money to cover the costs, must sign a debit note that will be passed by the mechanic assistant. This debit note should be payed in the end of the course, at the registration office.

The repair of punctures is excluded from the interventions provided by the mechanical support.

The mechanical assistance will consist by fixed and dynamic teams that will circulate along the course. Because of the event's dynamic this service may not ensure assistance to all participants.

However, the existence of this mechanical assistance, the participants must properly prepare their bikes, making sure they are in the best condition in the beginning of the event.

The organization can never be blamed for the abandonment of an athlete caused by mechanical problems.

Art.42 - The athletes in the competition should ensure the transport of food and fluid replacement for their own food and hydration. However, the organization will assemble recovering stations, identified before the event, which will dispense some food and drinks.

Art.43 - For safety, it is forbidden for participants to use headphones as an accessory device for listening to music or using the phone during the event.

Art.44 - During the event, the participant is obliged to carry a mobile phone with the number provided on the registration form, an identity card and money if he wants to benefit from the availability of replacement parts in mechanical assistance during the event. In case of bad weather conditions, the organization may compel participants to use or transport some equipment, such as thermal blankets or windstop and waterproof clothes.

Art.45 - The organization has the right to make changes on the course and other dynamic of the event when justified for any reason, without having to compensate participants.

ECO-RESPONSIBILITY

Art.46 - Participants are required to have a responsible behavior with regard to cleaning and preserving the environment throughout the areas used by the race, from the race route to the departure and arrival area. It is strictly forbidden to throw waste to the ground, before, during and at the end of the race. When applicable, it is up to the participants to take care to keep the residues from the food and beverage packaging used in their replacement during the race. At the end of the race and in the areas of the course, containers will be made available by the organization to deposit the garbage transported by the athletes. The disregard for this rule implies the immediate exclusion of the athlete from the race, as well as the prohibition of participation in other events under the responsibility of the same organization.

PENALTIES

Art.47 - The sanctions will be applied in these situations:

Art.47.1 - Do not respect the traffic rules, taking into account the fact that the roads are open to traffic.

Art.47.2 – Do not comply with the orders and directions given by the security forces and the elements of the organization.

Art.47.3 – Do not pass by the start and finish control or by the other control points along the existing course.

Art.47.4 – Fouling or degrading the route and other areas used in the event.

Art.47.5 – Have or are assisted by their own support vehicle circulating in the middle of the race and hindering the progress of the remaining cyclists.
